YOUNG FORGER WORKS IN TOWN

Youth by the Name of Carpenter Visits Gettysburg and Secures Clothing and Cash on Check with Forged Signature.

Forging the name of R. T. Little, of Seven Stars, on a check for $25, which he had cashed by Funkhouser and Sachs, a young man giving his name as W. S. Carpenter has disappeared after spending some time in Gettysburg, and is now being hunted by local authorities.

Carpenter is said to be a boy about eighteen or nineteen years of age and resembles strongly the youth who some ago forged the name of U. H. Cromer for $57.80. The youth came here several weeks ago and secured boarding in a private home. During his stay he seemed to have considerable money and at various times visited the Funkhouser and Sachs store where he bought articles of clothing for which he always paid immediately.

Last Tuesday he again went to the store and bought a bill of goods which included a rather expensive overcoat. He did not lift the goods but said he would pay for them as soon as he received money for which he would telegraph to his home in Harrisonburg, Virginia. It has been found that he really did telegraph for the funds but they failed to be forthcoming. Friday he again went to the store, said he didn't want as expensive a coat as he first bought, and after picking another one produced a check on the First National Bank signed "R. T. Little" for $25.00. His bill amounted to half that amount and, taking his goods and the other $12.50, he left.

Saturday morning he departed from town by way of the Western Maryland and Monday the check was found to be worthless, the signature of Mr. Little being forged. Young Carpenter has been traced as far as Glyndon. It is said that similar work has been done in nearby towns.

County Detective Wilson communicated with bank officials in Harrisonburg and received information that the Carpenter name had been connected with other forgeries. It is believed the boy's grandfather, living in that town, is a man of means and that the youth is taking advantage of that fact to get money.

Carpenter is about 5 ft. 9 inches in height, wears large hat, size 7 1/2, weighs about 130, has brown eyes and dark hair. His complexion is dark. He is a machinist by trade.

The Carpenters lived in this county for several months in 1911, residing on the farm near Seven Stars now owned by Rev. S. L. Rice.

NOT FOR REAL ESTATE

Would Guard against Using Lincoln Way to Boom Real Estate.

Congressman Borland, of Missouri, one of the men backing the Lincoln highway memorial, says that safeguards will be thrown around the construction of the road, if it is authorized, to protect the Government from any attempt to boom real estate values. There are two or three routes which can be taken, said Mr. Borland, and the route which grants the most concessions will be chosen.

"I am in favor of the construction of a highway which will be one of the show places of America," said Mr. Borland.

Mr. Borland ridiculed the idea that the highway will be dotted with road houses. He said once a road house was established on a highway constructed in honor of Lincoln's memory a howl would be raised that would result in its being wiped off the earth. He said he was sure the Maryland authorities would give the highway splendid police protection, as his experience has been that the better the highway the better the police protection.

TO FIGHT SALE

York County Borough all Excited over Proposed Sale.

A deal to transfer for $104,000 the rights, privileges and property of the Red Lion Water Company to the York County Consolidated Water company syndicate, which several years ago purchased the same rights and properties of the companies at Dallastown and Yoe and secured the right to enter the borough of Windsor, is said to have been consummated by the directors of the company and the residents of the town are up in arms and threaten all kinds of vengeance from a municipal standpoint if the sale goes through.

IGNATIUS POIST CALLED BY DEATH

Prominent Cigar Manufacturer of McSherrystown Dies after an Illness of a Few Hours. Widely Known as a Business Man.

Ignatius Poist, a well known citizen of McSherrystown, died suddenly at his late home in that place, from acute indigestion and a stroke of paralysis, Sunday, January 19, at 12.15 a. m. He was aged 58 years, 1 month and 4 days.

Mr. Poist, who was a member of the firm of J. A. Poist Co., cigar manufacturers, went to the factory Saturday morning about 7 o'clock, as was his custom, after eating a hearty breakfast, and about an hour later he was seized with an attack of indigestion and dropped to the floor in a semi-conscious condition.

Dr. A. C. Rice was summoned, and after preliminary treatment Mr. Poist recovered consciousness and walked from the factory to a carriage, which conveyed him to his home. He rested comfortably during the day and seemed to be recovering from the effects of his illness. However, about 11 o'clock Saturday night, he was stricken with paralysis. Dr. Rice was recalled and remained with him until death ensued.

He was a son of the late James and Susan Poist, of Mt. Pleasant township, and he married Miss Rosa Sneeringer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sneeringer, January 3d, 1886. Mr. Poist was formerly a miller, but moved to McSherrystown about 33 years ago, being associated with his brother, the late John A. Poist in the cigar manufacturing business. He served several terms in the borough council and was active in every public enterprise. He was a member of the Catholic Beneficial Legion and the Holy Name Society of St. Mary's church.

He is survived by a widow, one son, Harry Poist, and two daughters, Misses Helen and Bernardina Poist, at home. Also by three brothers, William, James and Harry Poist, of McSherrystown.

Funeral Wednesday, January 22, high mass of requiem at 9 a. m. in St. Mary's church, Rev. L. Aug. Reudter officiating. Interment in St. Mary's cemetery.

CHARLES S. ZECK

Charles S. Zeck, a well known resident of Emmitsburg, died at his home Sunday evening after a lingering illness, in his 69th year. About seven years ago Mr. Zeck suffered a sun stroke, and after that time never regained his health, being compelled to give up his work.

He was a native of Emmitsburg and for many years he ran a blacksmith shop at Emmitsburg. During the war he fought in the Union army.

He leaves a widow and two sons, Edgar D. and Charles, both of Philadelphia. Two sisters also survive.

Funeral on Wednesday at 2 o'clock from the Lutheran church, Emmitsburg.

COL. WM. WOLFF

Col. William Wolff died Friday, January 17, at his home, in Baltimore, aged 83 years.

Col. Wolff was a native of Hanover, and is remembered by many of our citizens. For a number of years past Col. Wolff and wife spent their summers at East Berlin and New Oxford, the colonel spending his time in angling along the Big Conewago, which was his favorite pastime.

The funeral was held in Hanover today.

GOOD HOME TALENT

Home Talent Show in Biglerville Makes Decided Hit.

The war play "Down in Dixie" given by the Upstreamers of Biglerville Lutheran Sunday School in Thomas Brothers Hall, Saturday evening, was a big success. The acting was excellent, the costumes and scenery gave it a war-like aspect, and the audience of about three hundred was entertained between the acts by the Biglerville band and by a number of catchy, comic songs. These amateurs received many kind words of appreciation on the play, in fact it was one of the best home talent plays ever presented in Biglerville.

SAYS HE LOST $700 GAMBLING

Arrested in Harrisburg for Embezzling Funds, Man Claims he Lost the Money in Gettysburg "Gambling Den". Not Sentenced.

W. C. Myers, the confessed embezzler, who a fortnight ago made light of the fact that Gettysburg has a gambling den, where he lost more than $700 of funds he collected and misappropriated, will go unsentenced for some time because of a dispute as to whether the case shall be handled in Dauphin County, Adams or Cumberland. He is now in the Dauphin County jail.

Myers, before his arrest, was a salesman for the Sultzberger Sons Company and traveled through the Cumberland Valley. Moneys he collected were to be paid at the branch office of the company in Harrisburg, and when the shortages were discovered he was arrested.

At the preliminary hearing and in motion court, Myers confessed. The judges postponed sentencing the man, because of the question of jurisdiction, and the defendant was returned to the Dauphin county prison.

Last week the case went to the Grand Jury and the bill was ignored, presumably because the jurors thought they were without power to act. Since that action Myers has been detained in the Dauphin county prison with a view to having the matter referred to one of the other counties.

Attorneys for the surety company, which made Myers' shortage good and which is prosecuting the case, on Monday brought the matter before the Court. John C. Nissley, one of counsel, announced that they feared they would not be able to get one of the other counties to act on the case and moved for sentence.

The case will go on the argument list and the Dauphin County Court will decide what disposition is to be made.

ICE FOR TREES

Packs a Hundred Tons of Ice about Fruit Trees.

What is said to be probably the first case on record of providing an artificial winter for fruit trees was practiced on the orchard of W. F. Thomas between Hagerstown and Hancock, last week.

Mr. Thomas, a resident of Washington, owns an orchard of 6000 apple trees that are four years old. They are not yet old enough to bear fruit, but they are setting blooms and the unseasonable warm weather has coaxed out the buds so that there is danger of the whole lot blooming.

If they did this and a later frost should catch them the wood would be largely killed, so Mr. Thomas consulted with the Department of Agriculture as to the best way of discouraging the trees from blooming. Following their advice he shipped 100 tons of ice to the orchard. The ice will be broken up and applied to the roots of the trees in the hope of chilling them, preventing the sap rising and thereby keeping them from blooming.

MANY VISITS OF THE CIVIC NURSE

Calls are Frequent for the Services of Gettysburg's Civic Nurse and Work of the Association Proves a Great Benefit.

The excellent work of the civic nurse, since September 27th, the date upon which she began her work, clearly shows the necessity and the great advantage of establishing in this community the project of the District Nursing Association. Notwithstanding the absence of six weeks by reason of a previous engagement, which could not be broken or avoided, the visiting nurse from the latter part of September until the first of January, 1913, has made two hundred and four visits to patients in twenty-two families of the community. In addition to professional work, supplies have been furnished by the Association to a number of needy cases.

A number of voluntary contributions to the association have been received for the year. In addition to these a number of local beneficiary associations have contributed various sums, and on several occasions collections at public meetings have been turned over to the association. A list of these contributions is as follows: Catholic Benevolent Society $5.00; Royal Arcanum $15.00; Ladies of the G. A. R. $1.00; Lincoln Lodge Colored Elks $5.00; H. O. Himes, musical $13.55; Thanksgiving collection $13.20.

In addition a well known life insurance company has agreed to pay fifty cents for each visit which the nurse may make to a holder of a life insurance policy of this company.

The association has adopted the following rules concerning the work of the nurse:

The visits of the nurse shall ordinarily not exceed one hour in duration. According to their ability patients are expected to pay from 10 cents to 50 cents for a visit; from $1.00 to $2.00 for a day of 10 hours; from $2.00 to $3.00 for a day of 24 hours.

Those unable to pay shall be treated free of charge.

The nurse may be engaged by leaving notice in the call book at her residence, or she may be notified by telephone at 8 a. m. and 1 p. m. and 7 p. m.

The nurse is not expected to take the place of a physician.

She will not visit on Sundays or legal holidays except in cases of emergency.

She will not visit patients suffering with contagious diseases, but may give advice at the door.

She will not attend cases of labor, but will visit after the confinement.

She will turn into the treasury all money paid for services rendered.

NO NATURAL ICE

Artificial Ice Men Likely to Have Entire Market.

Natural ice will in all probability be a scarcity next summer if the present open weather remains and makers of artificial ice will reap a harvest by the demand which will arise for their product. In the Northern states, where they usually begin cutting ice about January 5, no ice at all has been cut this year, and from present indications it will be several weeks or more before any is cut. No ice has been cut in Gettysburg this year and the big dam at Laurel has not yet frozen over.

DEDICATED NEW CHURCH

Reformed Church at Biglerville Dedicated after Services Lasting Several Evenings. Congregation Less than a Year Old.

Services in connection with the dedication of the new Reformed church at Biglerville were concluded Sunday evening after a series of meetings lasting several days. The congregation has been in existence less than a year and now has a property worth $6500, exclusive of the lot, and more than half of the cost of this has been met.

At the services Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings sermons were preached by Rev. A. S. Dechant, of Hanover; Dr. W. E. Korn, of New Oxford; Rev. J. S. Hartman, of the Hoffman Orphanage; and Student G. Nevin Rebert, of Lancaster.

Sunday morning Dr. H. M. G. Klein, of Franklin and Marshall College, delivered an excellent sermon on "Christian Worship" after which the dedication took place according to the impressive service of the Reformed ritual. The exercises were in charge of the pastor, Rev. Theodore C. Hesson, assisted by his nephew, G. Nevin Rebert, and by Dr. Charles E. Wehler, dean of Hood College, Frederick, Maryland. Dr. Wehler preached to a large congregation in the evening.

During the series of services $700 was raised toward meeting the cost of the church, leaving a balance of $3000 yet to be provided for.

This congregation is not a year old. The first meeting was held in Thomas Brothers' Hall last March when a Sunday School was organized with sixty members. On the evening of May 31 a committee of Gettysburg Classis organized the congregation, and on August 4 the cornerstone of the new church was laid.

PECULIAR AFFLICTION

Suffering from Hardening of the Muscles and Unable to Move about.

Two young men at Highfield are suffering from a peculiar affliction. They are Edward Benchoff, aged 35 years, and Jacob Benchoff, who is 22 years old.

Both are victims of a disease that has been denominated hardening of the muscles. In each case the signs of the trouble began at their feet, with odd twitches, and then very slowly ascended their legs to their bodies, leaving the parts of the body they pass over rigid.

Edward has been a sufferer for many years. For nine years he has not been out of the room. His legs are bent at the knee and never change their position unless lifted around.

For a number of years before this long term of imprisonment he was able to get around with the aid of two canes. He used to make his way to the garden on these canes and there get down on his knees and work away at tilling the soil. This labor he was compelled to give up nine years ago.

His brother, Jacob, has not been afflicted for such a lengthy period but his malady is progressing just as his brother's did.

Strangely enough, the hardening of the muscles, or whatever the disease may be, has not affected the general health of the men. They have good appetites and can eat almost anything set before them.

There were fourteen children in Mr. Benchoff's family and these two are the only ones so afflicted. Mr. Benchoff is employed on the Western Maryland section gang and is a hard working and able-bodied man.

DIES FIGHTING FIRE

Dillsburg Man Dies while Putting out Neighbor's Blaze.

George W. Knaub, 66 years old, died of heart failure while trying to extinguish a fire at the home of a neighbor, Daniel McCurdy, of Dillsburg. The fire started from an overheated stovepipe, and Knaub was the first to respond to the alarm. Over-exertion and excitement brought on the fatal attack.

WILSON PLANS DRASTIC REFORMS

Jersey Legislature Gets Seven Bills Aimed at Trusts.

PROVIDE JAIL SENTENCES

New Measure Makes It a Misdemeanor to Acquire a Monopoly or Promote Trusts.

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 21.—A sweeping program of changes in the corporation laws of New Jersey was announced by Governor Wilson.

Not only would it be a misdemeanor, under the proposed law, to acquire a monopoly or interfere with freedom of competition, but jail sentences are contemplated for those who promote or organize trusts.

To effect these changes, seven voluminous bills have been drafted by Governor Wilson, Chancellor Walker and Judge Van Syckel. The first of these bills provides for a punishment not exceeding three years' imprisonment and $1000 fine for any corporation, firm or individuals who may agree to any of the following:

To limit production or increased prices. To prevent competition in manufacturing, transporting or selling any commodity.

To fix any standard or figure where by prices to the public shall in any manner be controlled.

To make any agreement which shall directly or indirectly preclude a free and unrestricted competition among themselves or any purchasers or consumers.

To make any secret oral agreement whereby the same thing is accomplished.

The other bills rule that corporations shall not issue stock upon fictitious values of property, but must make "a fair bona fide valuation," provide punishment by fine and imprisonment for those who organize a corporation in restraint of trade; prohibit holding companies; and prevent merged companies from acquiring stock of other corporations.

It also is provided that the consent of the public utilities commission must be obtained when two or more corporations desire to merge, and there is a prohibition against improper discrimination by corporations in prices of commodities in different communities.

Governor Wilson's bills were introduced by Senator J. Warren Davis, of Salem, majority leader of the senate.

The revenue derived by the state from these corporations annually is approximately $2,000,000.

If the bills introduced disturb this income in any way there is sure to be considerable opposition to them, as the amount thus derived would have to come from some other source, and there is none in sight just now save the taxpayer, who is already protesting against his burdens.

The trust evil in New Jersey will be attacked in the legislature also by Senator Carlton B. Pierce, of Union county, a Republican. Senator Pierce will introduce a bill making the federal Sherman anti-trust law applicable to New Jersey.

WILL BE NO INAUGURAL BALL

Committee Decides Officially to Do Away With Social Feature.

Washington, Jan. 21.—There will be no inaugural ball in connection with the ceremonies of Woodrow Wilson's induction into the presidency.

The committee in charge so decided officially and was informed by telephone from Trenton that should a public reception be planned in the stead of the wife and daughters of the new president should not be expected to attend.

It was decided to leave the reception feature to congress.

The resolution to abandon the ball was introduced by George E. Hamlin, chairman of the committee of legislation, and was unanimously adopted. The committee decided that the elimination of the ball necessitate the omission also of the supper and concert usually given in the inaugural ballroom on the two days following the inauguration.

Too Much Hot Air in Washington.

Washington, Jan. 21.—Declaring there "was too much hot air" at both ends of the capitol, Representative Bates, of Pennsylvania, introduced a resolution to discontinue publication of the Congressional Record, which chronicles every word of congressional debate. He said if there was no way in which the legislators' views were given publication, debate would be shortened, legislation speeded and the government saved a vast sum.

Killed by Falling Tree.

West Chester, Pa., Jan. 21.—Edward Gibson, about fifty years old, a prominent and wealthy farmer of near Marshallton, was killed by a falling tree on the McFadden farm, which he had been managing for some time.

170,375 Arrests in New York.

New York, Jan. 21.—The annual report of Police Commissioner Waldo, just made public, shows that arrests and summonses in the metropolis last year totaled 170,375, compared with 153,768 in 1911.

COUNTESS SZECHENYI.

Formerly Gladys Vanderbilt, Who May Be Queen of Hungary.

GLADYS VANDERBILT MAY BE A QUEEN

Count Szechenyi Seeks Throne of Hungary.

Budapest, Hungary, Jan. 21.—That the Countess Szechenyi, formerly Miss Gladys Vanderbilt, of New York, may some day be queen of Hungary, was revealed by dispatches from Paris to the effect that a number of Hungarian patriots have assembled there to obtain financial backing to place Count Szechenyi upon the Hungarian throne, should the dual monarchy break up at the death of Emperor Francis Joseph.

Count Szechenyi is spoken of as a possible successor to the Hungarian throne, because his grandfather was a leader in the revolution of 1848. The revolution failed and the leader was put to death, although his memory has been revered ever since by Hungarian patriots.

The Countess Chotek, morganatic wife of Archduke Francis Ferdinand, her presumptive to the throne of Austria-Hungary, may never become a queen, though her husband ruled the dual monarchy.

On the other hand, should Count Szechenyi become king of Hungary his American wife would have to be recognized as queen, as her marriage was not morganatic. It is understood that American capital will be sought to finance the enterprise.

AVIATRICE, BLINDED, GUIDES PLANE TO EARTH

Miss Miller Retains Her Nerve While Facing Death.

Mineola, L. I., Jan. 21.—Miss Verne Miller, aviatrice, trying for the altitude record for women on the Hempstead Plains aviation field, had a narrow escape from serious injury or death when the oil cup on the engine of her aeroplane exploded, filling her face and eyes with scalding hot oil. She was forced to volplane fully 1500 feet to the ground.

Miss Miller started out for an altitude record. She had been out about twenty-two minutes and had been going steadily upward in great spirals until she had reached a height of about 1800 feet.

At this point the glass globe on the oil cup of her engine exploded, throwing the hot oil into her face and eyes. She was almost blinded by the shower of oil.

Knowing that her engine would last but a few revolutions without the oil cup working, she shut it off and quickly dipped her machine for a glide to earth. She reached the ground safely and with scarcely a jar, but her eyes were badly burned by the oil, and it will be several days before she will again do any flying.

MORSE TO ATTACK ENEMIES

Health and Wealth Restored. He Will Fight Interests Which Downed Him.

New York, Jan. 21.—Charles W. Morse, with health almost recovered and his fortunes rehabilitated to a large extent, it was learned, is soon to begin a fight with the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad and other interests that brought about his financial downfall.

The banker, who was sentenced to the Atlanta prison, following the collapse of his banks, and who was liberated a year ago because it was stated that he was in a dying condition, is now in Germany.

Within a few weeks Mr. Morse will return to this country and attempt to get back into his control the Metro-politan Steamship company, which will mean an independent boat line between New York and Boston and will smash the monopoly now held by the New Haven road.

SENATE REJECTS IMMIGRATION BILL

Sent Back to Conference Because It Would Bar Jews.

OLIVER STARTED THE FIGHT

Read Protests Against "Certificate of Character" Clause—Lodge Defends Measure.

Washington, Jan. 21.—Following a vigorous fight, led by Senator Laroquette, the conference report on the Burnett-Dillingham immigration bill was rejected by the senate because of a clause which, it was asserted, would exclude a majority of Jews from Russia and Rumania.

At the request of Senator Lodge the bill went back to the conference committee, which will be asked to eliminate that feature.

Senator Oliver precipitated the controversy by presenting telegrams from Judge Mayer Sulzberger, of Philadelphia, former president of the American Jewish committee, and Louis Marshall, the present head of that organization.

The telegrams protested against the clause which would add to the excluded classes, "citizens or subjects of any country that issues penal certificates or certificates of character who do not produce to the immigration officials such a certificate."

Judge Sulzberger pointed out that this clause would bar out all Russian Jews. His telegram read:

"Conference immigration bill in section three, provision not previously considered, excluding subjects of countries issuing character certificates, failing to produce such certificates to the immigration officials. This will exclude majority Jews coming from Russia and Rumania, owing to legal difficulties attending procurement of certificates, compliance with elaborate conditions imposed there, military regulations and the large expense involved."

"How could victims of Kishineff or the thousands constantly expelled from their homes by the police, or those suspected of being political offenders expect to secure such certificates?"

"Such reversal of our attitude toward persecuted cannot be intended. Bill should be amended to preclude cruel consequences inevitable resulting from present phraseology."

Replying to the criticism of Judge Sulzberger, Senator Lodge, in charge of the bill, said that the Philadelphia jurist and Louis Marshall were laboring under a misunderstanding of the situation. He declared that the effect of this clause would not operate against Jews coming into this country from Russia, for the reason that Russia issues no such certificates. The only country which issues such certificates, he said, is Italy, and it shows that the house has not been convicted of any offense.

He pointed out that the government had asked Russia for such certificates, and that Russia had replied that no such certificates were issued and that it would be impractical to issue them.

Senators Stone, O'Gorman and Simmons joined the fight on the "certificate of character" clause. Senator L. F. Follette declared it went far beyond the purpose of the supporters of the plan and turned over to other countries the determination of what class of emigrants should be acceptable in the United States.

He asserted that Russia could prevent its people leaving for the United States by refusing to issue certificates of good character. Russians who now come to the United States surreptitiously, he said, would under the new provisions be excluded.

"Russia does not want these people seeking freedom admitted to the United States," he said, "and I believe that is why some others do not want them admitted, for these people are a menace to plutocracy and there are certain people in this country who do not favor encouraging the menace to plutocracy."

THE EXTRA SESSION CALL

Not to Be Sent Out Until Tariff Bill Is Ready For Action.

Washington, Jan. 21.—Chairman Underwood, of the ways and means committee, has been notified by President-elect Wilson that he will defer issuing the call for the extra session of congress until the tariff bill is ready for action in the house.

Darrow on Trial Again.

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 21.—Clarence S. Darrow was placed on trial for the second time on a charge of having attempted to corrupt a juror in the McNamara case. After a trial lasting nearly all last summer, Darrow was acquitted of having bribed George N. Lockwood, a salesman called in the trial of James B. McNamara, now serving a life sentence at San Quentin prison for blowing up the Los Angeles Times building.

Yegmen at Phoenixville.

Phoenixville, Pa., Jan. 21.—Work is leisurely within a line of their pickets and a short distance from a high graph tower, yegmen blew open the safe at the Pennsylvania railroad station here and got away with about $400.

Mat Identified as Belonging to Miss Dittman, of Munnhall.

Homesstead, Pa., Jan. 21.—Pedestrians were startled when a well-dressed woman climbed the rail of the Brown bridge, spanning the Monongahela river and threw herself into the water, almost 100 feet below. She sank at once.

A hat found floating in the river nearby was identified by Dr. G. W. Dittman as that of his sister, Miss Henrietta Dittman, a well-known woman of Munnhall, Pa. Miss Dittman had been ill for some time.
